The Humble

ADDRESS

Of the Right Honourable the Lords Spiritual and Temporal,

AND

COMMONS

In PARLIAMENT Aſſembled.

Die Sabbati 8 Martii, 1706.

WE Your Majeſties moſt Dutiful Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in Parliament Aſſembled, Return Our moſt humble Thanks to Your Majeſty for Your Gracious Approbation of the Share We had in Bringing the Treaty of an Union between Your Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland to a Happy Concluſion : A Work that (after ſo many fruitleſs Endeavours) ſeems Deſign'd by Providence, to Add new Luſter to the Glories of Your Majeſties Reign: The Succeſs of Your Arms having Secured Us from all Attempts from Abroad ; And the Care Your Majeſty has Taken of the Firm Eſtabliſhment of the Proteſtant Succeſſion, having given a Great and Laſting Security to Our Religion, as in the Church of England by Law Eſtabliſh'd: We beg Leave humbly to Aſſure Your Majeſty, That Our Endeavours ſhall never be Wanting, to Support Your Government at Home, and ſo to Eſtabliſh the Peace of this Iſland, that no Diſpute may Remain among Us, but how to Acknowledge in the moſt Dutiful Manner, the Auſpicious Conduct of ſo Great and ſo Renown'd a Queen.

Her MAJESTIES moſt Gracious Anſwer to the Addreſs of both Houſes of Parliament.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I Am glad to find your Opinion ſo perfectly Agrees with Mine concerning this Union.

You cannot do Me a more acceptable Service, than by uſing your utmoſt Endeavours to Improve all the Good Conſequences of it.

FINIS.
